

In East Prussia Russian cavalry near Lasdehnen drove off a German force that attacked near the Scheskonpa river.

In the Carpathians the heaviest fighting is now in the Dukla Pass region. German forces concentrated near Svidnik, just south of the pass, are endeavoring to halt the Russian flanking movement from the west by energetic counter-attacks.

To the east the Austrians are attacking in heavy force in an attempt to force a passage of the mountains at Vyshkow.

ODD NEWS

New York.—Five dollars a kiss is what Clarence Levey, 64, paid to Alma Rose, according to his 22-year-old wife's divorce complaint. He bought many, she alleges.

Washington.—Twelve men will be pall bearers for Harry Coleman, 39, who weighed 751 pounds. Six years ago Coleman tipped the scales at 165.

Washington.—"Teach young people the precepts of better mating and let them apply them unhindered," is the eugenic advice of Dr. Alexander G. Bell, telephone inventor.

Greensburg, Pa.—When he got a circular letter from Washington advising him to economize, Postmaster Zimmerman forthwith lopped $400 from the salary of John Lear, first assistant. Lear resigned.

DASHING CAVALRY OF THE DESERT

Arabian desert warriors of the tribes now marching with the Turks on Egypt over the sands of the Sinai peninsula. They are mounted on the famous and speedy Arabian horses.

Washington.—Pres. Wilson accepted invitation to address New Citizens Allegiance celebration in Chicago on his western trip.